

EACPT Scientific Award 2025

This prize will be awarded for the best scientific paper on a topic relevant to clinical pharmacology published by a European clinical pharmacologist in the two years between 2023 and 2025.

The judgement will be made by the EACPT Council. The award has a value of 2000 €.

Nominations should be sent by a National Society representative. In addition, nominations sent by other individuals can also be acceptable, whenever these nominations are accompanied by a letter of nomination signed by a valid representative of the National Society of the nominated candidate.

All nominations should be sent to the EACPT secretary (jsaez@clinic.cat) by 12 midday CET on March 31st, 2025

See the accompanying notes for criteria for nominations.

Prof. Gerard Rongen
EACPT Chairman

Dr Joaquín Sáez-Peñataro
EACPT Secretary

Supporting information

2025 EACPT Scientific Award

Requirements

1. The criteria for the prize include:
 - i. scientific quality of the work itself
 - ii. broader impact on science
 - iii. importance of the work in the context of healthcare delivery.
2. Papers should be published, at least online, by the deadline.
3. The candidate must have accepted the nomination.

Application documents

1. An application should include brief statements explaining how the nominated publication meets the above criteria.
2. Candidates must be nominated using a signed nomination letter. This nomination letter should be signed by a valid representative of the National Society. Supporting information (i.e. CV of the candidate) should also be supplied. The letter must state that the candidate accepts the nomination.
3. Nomination papers must be submitted electronically and must bear the name of the person making the nomination.
4. Completed and signed nomination letter, together with any supporting information, must be sent to the Secretary of EACPT (jsaez@clinic.cat), by the notified closing date: 12 midday CET, March 31st, 2025.

The Award will be presented at the EACPT Congress in Helsinki, June 28th- July 1st, 2025.